The Vulcan Men's Open Bonspiel wound up on Saturday, March 18, with Gale Atkinson's rink copping the Grand Aggregate honors with a record of eight wins and one loss, followed by Ray Wellman's foursome with a 9-2 record.

Winners of the First Event, the Atkinson rink of Jim Clark, Orval Webb and Walt McDermott won the final over Harris Matlock. Third place went to Percival of Blackie and fourth to Neal Dumka.

In the Second Event it was Ray Wellman with Lloyd Graham, Harold Boutland and Omar Haga winning by edging the Atkinson rink in a tight final. Third and fourth spots went to N. Dumka and S. Joiner.

Third Event honors were taken by the Alf Rupp rink from Champion with Geo. Ellis, Ed Leback and Jack Sanderson. Second spot went to the R. Fulton foursome with R. Wellman third and S. Beagle of Blackie fourth.

The Vulcan Ladies' rink of Irma Middleton, Ethel Banks, Viola Mensinger and Al Lucas took in the Calgary Ladies' Bonspiel and came home with third prize in the Second Event. Library Reviews 1960 Activities

A meeting of the Vulcan Library Board was held in the library on Saturday, March 18, at 8:00 p.m., with eight members present.

The secretary, Bob Jamison reported a bank balance of $50, also that $140 had recently been paid on books. Of the $1,142 handled last year, $550 was spent on books. This year the library fell short of the $600 objective. New books are coming into the library all the time.

There seems good prospects for a new library building in the immediate future. The council and the provincial government have approved the spending of the $12,000 cultural activities grant for this purpose. This brings to eight, the town who have used, or are using their grants, for library buildings.

could not go because school exams are to be written during Farm Young People's Week. The secretary read a brief outline on being wary of door-to-door salesmen.

On closing of the meeting, Mrs. May Nelson was called upon to give a report on education and to answer many questions and complaints brought forth by those present. This was very much enjoyed by all and many thanks go to Mrs. Nelson.

The hostess assisted by her helpers then served a tasty lunch bringing to a close an enjoyable evening.

Scout Leaders Hear Talk On Winter Camping

Scouters and Group Committee members of Lake McGregor district were hosts to a Scouting seminar on "Winter Camping" at the Carmangay High School on Thursday, March 16.

Tony Pierce, superintendent of Waterton Lake Park and a member for "Camping" on provincial headquarters staff was guest speaker. Mr. Pierce took as his theme, "Wishing is not good enough" and urged his listeners to stimulate their Scouts by planning winter camping. Since most Scouters are not experienced winter campers he suggested that experience be acquired by "starting in your own backyard," then as confidence, experience and equipment increased, venture into more distant fields. A Barons group recently held an over-night camp in an irrigation ditch. A deep road-side cut makes another good shelter as does a shelter belt of trees. From these places, amid familiar surroundings, sudden changes of plans or weather conditions, need not produce anxiety or tragedy.

As a start, begin with interested group committee members, and patrol leaders and as experience and judgement increases, include the younger boys. The use of common sense, good judgement, are good guides that can provide a challenging program of training to the boys during the winter months.

Several of the visiting Scouters brought their camping gear and this was put on display. Mr. Pearce utilizing items to emphasize desirable qualities. Many Scouters took extensive notes on the practical tips the speaker was able to offer on producing comfort and pleasure while winter camping.

Lorne Smith, camping chairman for Lake McGregor district was responsible for the arrangements and extending invitations to Mr. Pierce and to Scouters from the neighboring districts of Porcupine Hills and Lethbridge.

Roger Jensen, district commissioner for the Lake McGregor district, conducted the opening ceremonies and welcomed all the visiting members. Carmangay group committee members provided the refreshments. Judging from the chatter about the tables and the evident lingering in the hall and building, everyone had an enjoyable evening.

This is the last time Lake McGregor is likely to have Mr. Pearce as a guest as he is being transferred to National Parks in Eastern Canada.

No Fire

Both rigs of the Vulcan Fire Brigade and dozens of cars answered a fire alarm late Monday

18 Court Cases In February

Complaints to Vulcan police resulted in 18 court cases being heard by magistrate W. A. Shields during February.

Tops on the list was a Delmer Wiltse of Hanna who was found guilty of passing a bad cheque to the value of $565 in town. The cheque was written and taken by a local business last November and the accused was remanded on March 15 until March 29.

Two fire calls and five accident cases were investigated by town police. Of the accident cases, no injuries resulted but property damage to the extent of $575 was caused. Charges were laid in one instance.

Three charges were laid as a result of residents complaining of noisy car mufflers keeping them awake at nights. Several groups of salesmen operating without a town licence left town rather than pay the levy. Prosecutions against these visitors can be made only if proof can be given that sales have been made in town.

McNarland's To Open New Branch At Brooks

Announcement is made in an advertisement in this issue of the opening at Brooks of a branch of McNarland Plumbing of Vulcan.

The new plumbing shop will be under the supervision of Jack Woodhall, formerly of Calgary, a master journeyman plumber and gas-fitter with 12 years experience. He will be assisted by L. E. Larson of the Vulcan shop, who will be moving to Brooks in the near future.

Mr. McNarland will continue to reside in Vulcan in charge of the main branch of the firm and Merwyn Smith of Champion will also remain with the Vulcan shop.

night to the Reath home. Luckily the new home located across from the Vulcan hospital suffered no damage as trouble was from the odor of fumes or burning wire and though not identified at the time it was felt a furnace motor cutting in might have been the trouble.

Expensive Undertaking

No Major Water Project Possible Until Fall

Any major project of a bigger and better water supply for the town of Vulcan will not likely be embarked upon until next fall. Raising the required money, getting the project approved for winter works assistance and doing the necessary testing on the airport wells both for flow of water and for treatment to remove sulphur in the water will take considerable time. If the airport wells are used, cost to the town of line, reservoir and treatment plant will be about $140,000 according to present estimates.

Meanwhile, the outlook for water this coming summer appears little changed from last year. The town is presently drilling a ten-inch diameter well near the elevators and the first water flow hit was of good quality but small quantity. The well will be deepened to over 200 feet in hope of hitting a better flow. Wells now in use will be brought up to capacity in hopes of increasing the water supply for this summer and a new pump has been ordered for the No. 2 well at a cost of $1,083.

The Provincial Water Resources Branch will be asked to help this year in determining a suitable water supply for the town so that the best advice from all sources will have been sought before the major water supply project is started.

Regular Meeting
At the March meeting of the town council, two building permits were approved:

To Roger Middleton for a 30x32 cement block addition to the County Abattoir, contractor self, estimated cost $6,500.

The will is probably the most important document a farmer will ever sign. It may well be a blue print of the family's future and should, therefore, be up to date and cover all property.

In Alberta both the formal will and the holograph will are valid. The former must be made in accordance with the Wills Act and has to be signed by the testator (person making the will) in the presence of two witnesses. The holograph will is one written and signed by the testator himself with no witnesses required. In either case the last will revokes all others.

Because the average person has not access to all the facts pertaining to the different ways of disposing of property under a will, it is advisable to seek the assistance of a lawyer, says Legal Advisor for the Alberta Department of Agriculture C. S. Brandley. Under certain circumstances one way may be more advantageous than another. It may also be possible to save the estate a considerable amount of money if consideration is given to the Estate Tax Act when the will is being drawn up.

All names should be clearly stated when listing the beneficiaries or persons to benefit under the will. If a description instead of a name is used, the presumption is that the gift is intended for the person to whom the description applied.

When the will was made. Thus "my wife" refers to the person who was the testator's wife at the time that he made his will and not to the woman who may have been his wife at the time of his death. Also, unless an intention to the contrary is expressed in the will, a beneficiary has to outlive the testator to benefit under the will.

An accurate description of the property referred to in the will is very important. Other factors to be considered here are whether the property is subject to a mortgage or payments under an agreement for sale. If so, how are these obligations to be born: by the person receiving the property or by the testator's estate? If any advancements have been made to any of the children involved are these to be deducted from the gift to the child?

The testator must decide whether he wishes his wife or other beneficiary to receive a cash bequest upon his death to meet immediate needs, whether he wants her to receive a parcel of property outright or a life estate. In the case of the latter the Estate Tax must decide at what age he wants them to receive their share of the estate. If the testator does not leave a large enough part of his estate to his wife or dependant children for their proper maintenance they may make application to the court, under the Family Relief Act.

Who is to be the executor of the will is another question to be considered. Often the testator appoints his wife together with a close friend, an adult son or some other person whose experience and honesty would be of assistance in administering the estate.

CALGARY POWER LTD.

SERVING THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

It was called the General store — the place where you could buy a little bit of everything. It was a friendly place, where townfolk gathered to sit and visit awhile around the big pot-bellied stove. But the array of foods was so limited, it was a hard job for the homemaker to plan varied menus for her family.

Today, thanks to inventive minds and the magic of electricity, the attractive, brightly-lit supermarket beckons every homemaker.

Taking a stroll through the frozen food section is an exciting, mouth-watering experience. Gourmet foods of world-famous restaurants too far away to visit are here, ready to be heated and served at your own family table. From frozen breakfast juices to fresh-frozen fruits for dinner desserts, Calgary Power's extensive electrification program makes meal planning interesting and easy. Electricity is helping to make life healthier and happier for town and farm families across Alberta.

What kind of medical protection do you enjoy?

Centuries ago, Babylonians believed that hostile demons lurked everywhere and that protection from illness or madness could be obtained by the use of magic amulets, talismans and other kindred charms. Images of the gods, swines' teeth, claws and even little stones strung on a thread or chain were especially favored.

Today, the comprehensive pre-paid medical care provided by Medical Services (Alberta) Incorporated, means freedom from worry and protection against costly illnesses for Albertans. Enjoyed by over 453,000 people in this Province, it offers the greatest protection for all members of the family at the lowest possible cost. M.S.I. includes such services as home, office and hospital calls, diagnosis, treatment, surgery and many others. There is no age limit, or exclusion for chronic or pre-existing ailments.

Can you afford to be without this protection?

Plan "A" for groups of three or more of one employer. Plan "C" for individuals.

Choose A Career

Education Week is past, but emphasizing the real necessity for our young people of today to complete their education and enter fields of specific training and endeavour is a summary and analysis of "help wanted" classified advertising in daily newspapers across Canada, which shows few openings for unskilled workers.

In ten of Canada's major cities, only a handful of openings existed for young men and women to start as learners to become clerks, managers or salesmen. There were hardly any calls for laborers, farm hands or truck drivers. The unskilled or semi-skilled worker is finding it increasingly difficult to get or hold a job.

In our own part of southern Alberta, only a few short years ago, a youth leaving school at grade 10 or 11 could easily find employment on a seismograph or oil crew or in the construction industry. But this no longer holds true and today's high school student would do well to set his or her sights on graduation and further training in a specific occupation.

"Career Night" at the Vulcan High School on Monday, April 10, is designed to help the high school student choose an occupation. Specific information on many professions, commercial vocations and trades will be available to those interested and parents, too, are invited to attend.

Press Protest About Passes

A weekly newspaper published in a near-by town has reminded the public that the issue of complimentary passes to the press for events about to take place, is a courtesy to be expected.

The reminder had the effect of hurting some people and making others indignant. Actually neither of these reactions was justified; but the reaction justified the writing of the reminder. They showed that the people concerned in the particular event that led to the writing of the reminder, realized their breach of etiquette. It is possible that they may not have known that it is customary to issue such passes to the press or — they may simply have forgotten to do so. Either way, having it pointed out to them in print that a common courtesy had been omitted very naturally wounded and affronted people — especially such socially hospitable people as those who live in the foothills of Alberta.

The issue of free passes to the press implies that the organizers of coming events wish them to be reported in the publication receiving them. A local newspaper with a small staff may not always be able to use the passes. The courtesy, however, is appreciated and will ensure that the event receives sympathetic treatment when a report reaches the editor from another source.

TRAVERS

A Shower was held recently in the Travers Community Hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Gieb and 8 children. The family had lost all their possessions when fire destroyed the Teacherage in Travers on Feb. 19th. The family were visiting some friends at the time of the fire.

Mrs. Gordon George and Mrs. Floyd Howg assisted Mr. and Mrs. Gieb in opening their many gifts which totalled over 100. The Hall was filled to capacity.

Mr. Gieb thanked everyone for their generous gifts on behalf of himself, Mrs. Gieb and the children.

Lunch was served followed by an hour of dancing with the music supplied by the Travers Lads.

Miss Betty Tone of Moose Jaw is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Gieb.

John Tolsdorf has returned to his home after spending several weeks in the St. Michaels Hospital in Lethbridge.

Mrs. Sid Thurlow has returned home after being a patient in St. Michaels for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and family of Drumheller spent the weekend with the latter's mothers, Mrs. L. Laurence and grandmother, Mrs. Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Peterson spent the weekend in Calgary.

The Happy Hours Square Dance Club is progressing favorably. Sam Stead of Lethbridge is the instructor and everyone was looking forward to the graduation dance to be held March 20.

Mrs. Lola Hendricks has sold her farm and was to leave after her auction sale, Monday, March 13th.

A farewell dance was held for Mrs. Hendricks and family in the Travers Community Hall on Saturday, March 11.

The Little Ladies' Girl Club will meet on March 10, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Merle Pearson of Lomond will be present to demonstrate the making of artificial flowers for the picture frames, the girls made previously.

Farmers Risk Loss Through Careless Business Practice

A good businessman never signs a legal document before reading and checking it thoroughly. Because he is in business for himself, a farmer too must conduct his affairs with the astuteness of a good businessman. Otherwise look out — there may be trouble ahead. An example is the recent case of two farmers in the Ponoka district who unwittingly signed legal contracts which committed them to pay in the neighborhood of $350 each to have their septic tanks cleaned out.

According to C. A. Cheshire, Alberta Supervisor of District Agriculturists, there are at least two known operators posing as "professional" septic tank cleaners now in circulation in the province. Their plan of action is to persuade the farmer that his septic tank needs cleaning and that they are qualified to perform the somewhat distasteful task. Then they present him with a piece of paper which they say must be signed for authorization purposes. The farmer signs an innocent looking paper which is usually purposefully folded in two to hide the content of a legal contract.

The contract commits the farmer to pay six cents for every pound of material removed from his tank. If it is a 600 gallon tank the cost of the job will be about $350. To make the transaction appear "on the level" these operators even go so far as to drive the truck onto the highway scales to verify the weight. By the time the farmer finds out that the usual price for cleaning a septic tank is somewhere between $15 and $30 it is too late. He has already signed a contract binding him to pay the amount specified by the contractor.

Contact a reputable firm if you are planning to have your septic tank cleaned out, advises Mr. Cheshire. If you usually do the job yourself, always be sure to have somebody else working with you. This precaution is extremely important because the gases in the tank are poisonous and a man working alone could easily be overcome by the fumes.

Travers Happy Hours W.I.

The Travers Happy Hours W.I. celebrated their 10th anniversary on Saturday, March 4, with a turkey banquet held in the Travers Community Hall for all the members and their husbands. Mrs. Gordon George, president, was master of ceremonies for the evening and introduced the five charter members present: Mrs. E. E. Murphy, Mrs. Chris Erickson and Mrs. W. A. Watson of Travers; Mrs. Art Thurlow of Taber; Mrs. Leslie Lewis of Picture Butte.

Mrs. H. M. Haney, director of district 4, and Mrs. E. T. Oseen, north Taber constituency convener, were introduced. They both spoke very highly of the support the Happy Hours W.I. have given the girls club; complemented the leaders, Mrs. Frank Tolsdorf and Mrs. Zack Gieb for the work they have done with and for the girls club. Special mention was made of the two girls from their club that won the trophy for the provincial awards in public speaking at Oida. The Happy Hours W.I. presented the girls with an engraved copper tray: R.R. Watson, Intermediate and Aleah Steeves the following year for junior.

The club was commended for presenting a baking trophy for the constituency conference and for giving a Grade IX scholarship each year.

Mrs. Jake Dunn who organized this branch when she was constituency convener ten years ago, expressed her congratulations. She regretted the absence of Mrs. Ford Taggart, the first president. Mrs. Dunn told how co-operation was the secret of success. She said she was very proud of this branch she had watched develop through the years.

Mrs. W. A. Watson paid tribute to the husbands. Without their support and co-operation the institute could not have become the success it has.

Entertainment for the evening was an accordion solo by Allen McLeod, followed by two monologues by Grant Payne. Allen McLeod then played the guitar and sang "Judy." Following the supper the anniversary cake was served. There were approximately forty present.

Homes For Aged Fill Long-felt Need

CONSTRUCTED and operated in a manner that encourages maintenance of personal dignity and independence, Alberta's homes for Senior Citizens in 50 provincial communities are rapidly opening for residents.

The one storey, U-shaped buildings are designed along contemporary lines. The base of the "U" houses a well equipped kitchen adjoining a bright modern dining room. The dining room is furnished with tables and chairs seating four. The generous use of glass along the wall provides a bright and cheery atmosphere. Extending from the dining room is a large sitting room tastefully furnished and dominated by a large stone fireplace bordered with knotty pine. Four additional smaller sitting rooms are located throughout the building. Each arm of the "U" contains single and double rooms, accommodating 25 persons. Each well furnished room is equipped with a washbowl and toilet and each wing is equipped with a bath. A patio and lawn are enclosed within the three sides of the building.

To date 31 contracts have been let for construction of the homes. Of these 15 have been completed and it is expected the balance will be in operation this summer. A staff of five is required to operate a unit. Cost of resident is $65.00 per month for a single room. Each home will accommodate 50 residents.

The cost per home to the province averages $170,000.00, according to location. Approximate additional cost for furnishing and fixtures is $30,000.00.

Formal opening ceremonies were planned for early October.

A. An exterior view of the residence at Ponoka showing the attractive design of the building.

B. The dining and sitting rooms are brightly lit by the use of large windows along one side.

C. A well equipped kitchen containing the latest automatic appliances adjoins the dining room.

D. A double room is furnished with mahogany dresser and chairs and decorated in rich pastel shades. A double window overlooks the grounds.

Majorville News

MAJORVILLE

Although the official date has not yet arrived, several signs of spring have been noticed this week. Geese, ducks and starlings are back, gophers are seen daily in the pasture, tulips are up and some perennials are showing new growth, and a fisherman in the district mentioned it would soon be mild enough to go fishing without ice breaking equipment. Indeed he was digging for worms the other day, so once more spring seems to be on the way.

Among the curlers taking part in the Bassano bonspiel this week were Jim Prentice, Hap Heather, Irvin Sukut, Aubrey Gore and Bill Gooch. At last report some were headed towards the finals but nothing final is known at the moment.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch were in Calgary early in the week attending the sale of Aberdeen Angus bulls and on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Greaves were at the stock sale when the Herefords were sold.

Gene Henry went to Rowley last week where he visited with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kiemele.

Best wishes and congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Monner on the birth of a daughter in the Vulcan Hospital and also to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bertrand on the birth of a daughter in Vulcan.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Winkler of Dalmead were visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Papp.

Get well wishes are sent to Mrs. Fred Bertschy who is a patient in the Bassano Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jaycock of Calgary were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Heather last Saturday. They were accompanied from the city by Mrs. Jaycock's father, Stanley Heather of Camrose who stayed over to visit for several days with his brothers, Alf and George Heather.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Otteson and family of Enchant were guests on Sunday at the home of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. Heather.

Majorville and district was well represented at the Don Messer show in Calgary on Friday as several people made the trip to the city to attend the show.

Mrs. Hugh Winch had her grandson Montie Beagle of Arrowwood staying with her for a day or two while his parents were in Calgary and later in the week she took care of Owen and Bobbie Boyd of Queenstown while their parents went to Lethbridge. Ever hear that, "Just when a woman thinks she can take things easy she becomes a grandmother." But who wants a world where there are no grandchildren, to come visiting once in a while.

Correction:— In the item last

Elmer Dovey of Kegg, the name week mentioning Mr. and Mrs. was spelled Davey in the Advocate.

Milo-Queenstown F.W.U.A.

The Milo-Queenstown FWUA held the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Jessie Umschied. The roll call was answered by, "Naming an Irish author or poet."

Mrs. John Papp, the president, was in charge of the meeting assisted by the secretary, Mrs. Ken Vooy's. A questionnaire based on the findings of the Cameron Report on education proved to be very interesting and aroused quite a discussion among the members. A letter was read from the director regarding a course in farm book keeping. A few members expressed interest but left final decision until the FUA had their meeting to find out if enough interest is aroused in both locals to make it worthwhile to form a study group.

None of the members present felt they would be able to attend the conference at Pincher Creek in April. The secretary was asked to contact some of the absent members by phone. Mrs. J. Umschied said she would write the Rorean orphan this month. Mrs. Umschied won the raffle. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Vooy's. A lovely afternoon tea was served after the meeting adjourned.

Vulcan IS ON THE MAP

On some maps, the dot marking your community may be overshadowed by larger Alberta centres. But on the gas company system map every dot is the same size — for every community is equal in this one important respect: large city, or tiny hamlet, they are all communities where the gas company has the responsibility of providing "The best possible gas service at the lowest possible cost." To this end, the gas company agent serving your community, the company departments, the engineers and other company personnel are dedicated!

A. ROSS is your Canadian Western Local Agent assisted by C. E. Schneider serving Vulcan, Champion, Carmangey and Kirkcaldy.

YOUR GAS COMPANY

CANADIAN WESTERN NATURAL GAS COMPANY LIMITED

"Serving Albertans with Natural Gas Since 1912"

Ye that love the Lord hate evil.
—Psalms 97:10

We have good reason to "hate evil" for only consider what harm it has already done us. Oh, what a world of mischief sin has brought into our hearts! Sin blinds us so that we could not see the beauty of the Saviour; it made us deaf so that we could not hear the Redeemer's tender invitations. Sin turned our feet into the way of death, and poured poison into the very fountain of our being; it tainted our hearts, and made them "deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked." Oh, what creatures we were when evil had done its utmost with us, before divine grace intervened! We were heirs of wrath even as others; we "ran with the multitude to do evil." Such were all of us. Paul reminds us, "but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God."

Order my footsteps by Thy Word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

—SILVER COLLECTION—

— VULCAN UNIT E.M.O. —

Sweden, a country that has not been involved in war since 1813, is taking civil defence seriously — they have constructed vast underground shelters — complete with recreation facilities. These are carved out of solid rock.

A practical use has been devised for these shelters and it is felt that they will actually pay for themselves. They are being used for car parks, warehouses, theatres, garages, etc.

Maybe our cities should be building down more instead of up towards the sky.

Lomond Home & School

Lomond Home and School Association held an exhibit of pictures sent out by the Cultural Division of Edmonton. This exhibit was in the school on Saturday, March 4, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. The pictures were done by four different artists, Barnhouse, Critchley, D. D. Barry and Wohlfarth and were valued at more than $1700.

There was a large audience of viewers most of whom found pictures to admire but some disappointment was expressed. Some felt that considering the value of the first exhibit and its quality; the value of the second exhibit should have warranted a better quality of picture. Then, too, some found that their artistic appreciation was not sophisticated enough to enjoy the "Nudes;" however "Hunger," "El Vendedor" Dead Gull" and "Crabapple Tree" and others were admired. It was generally agreed that the portraits by D. D. Barry were really good.

All in all the Home and School Association are to be complimented for sponsoring these exhibits and for serving tea to the viewers. It is understood that still another exhibit is to follow during this term.

4-H Club Notes

Lomond 4-H Calf Club

On Monday, March 6, the Lomond 4-H Calf Club and a good crowd of local parents and friends came to the Lomond hall to hear H. Cameron of the Calgary Power Co., give his lecture on his display of electrical hazards. He also had a very interesting film on mouth to mouth resuscitation. To each and everyone there the evening lecture and film were very helpful.

This was followed by the club public speaking competition. Ross Ruggles was chairman and judges were Mr. Mays, Mr. Liebreck and Mrs. Lindsay. The two top winners were Carol Ruggles and Lois Root.

Arrowwood 4-H Beef Club

Several members from the Arrowwood 4-H Beef Club attended a 4-H Field Day at the Lloyd Bouduc farm at Stavelly on Feb. 25. The club attended a skating party at Gleichen, sponsored by the Gleichen Standard 4-H Beef Club.

The regular monthly meeting of the Beef Club was held on March 6. The main item on the agenda was the 4-H speaking contest. Most of the members participated, with the following being the winners: 12-13 years old, 1st, Ralph Seely and 2nd, Jack Williams; 14-15 years old, 1st, Donna Williams and 2nd, Carol King; 16 and over, 1st, Nadine Arney and 2nd, Tommy Williams. The latter two will represent Arrowwood at a district speaking contest to be held in Vulcan.

The meeting was brought to a close with a picture, taken to a great extent in a cow's stomach. Lunch was served by Ralph Seely, Bobby Cockwill, Barry Williams and Betty Ann Cockwill.

BERRYWATER

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnk of Milo were Sunday visitors at the home Lorne Healy.

Miss Ethel Virtue, formerly of the Berrywater district passed away suddenly on Thursday, March 16, in Calgary. Funeral services were held on Saturday.

Mrs. T. Webber, Sr., was a business visitor to Calgary last week and attended the Don Messer Show Friday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Webber and family.

Mrs. T. Webber, Sr., and John were Sunday dinner guests at the Leonard Stephens' home at Moosleigh.

Reid Hill W.I.

Mrs. E. Deal and Mrs. J. French were hostesses for the March meeting of the Reid Hill W.I., held at the Deal home Thursday, March 9, with a fair attendance of members. Mrs. R. Harold, the president, was in the chair and conducted the meeting assisted by secretary, Mrs. French. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. C. L. Kuykendall.

Correspondence was very light, after which committee reports were received. Plans were finalized for catering to the Mensinger auction sale in April, when the branch will serve lunch.

Mrs. Kuykendall was named to represent Reid Hill at the Southern Alberta District 4 conference to be held at Lethbridge the end of this month.

Roll call was answered with, "An Irish Joke," and was very amusing.

A paper on home economics, prepared and read by Mrs. Harold was most interesting dealing as it did with the origin and uses of many of the more commonly used spices.

Wayne Lucas, a contestant in a public speaking contest being sponsored by a farm group, read his paper on the Appaloosa horse and its history, which proved highly interesting and was much enjoyed.

Two contests arranged by Mrs. Frieda McRoberts, with an Irish theme, were won by Mrs. MacMillan and Mrs. McPherson, and by Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Harold.

Mrs. MacMillan, the March birthday member, was presented with a small gift and wished many happy returns of the day.

The tea draw was won by Mrs. Marshall after which a delicious hot lunch was served by the hostesses and Mrs. Bill Lucas.

Under the British and Commonwealth Shipping Company's construction program, the 33,000-ton Transvaal Castle, slides down the slipway after being launched at a Clydebank, Glasgow, Scotland, shipyard recently.

The new $11 million liner introduces a new concept of ocean travel as the first "classless" luxury liner. Passengers will book their accommodation from several different types of rooms available, and the cost of passages will be based on the accommodation; the public rooms and all other amenities of the ship will be freely available for the use of all passengers, irrespective of the type of accommodation occupied.

The launching ceremony was performed by Lady Cayzer, wife of the Chairman of the British and Commonwealth Shipping Company.

Scheduled for completion towards the end of 1961, the new "hotel class" liner will go into service with Union Castle Line's South African Mail Service in January, 1962.

With an overall length of 756 feet, the Transvaal Castle will provide accommodation for 740 passengers.

Carmangay Girl Wed at Strome

West — Badry

St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church at Strome was the scene of a wedding of interest which united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rose, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Badry, of Forestburg and Mr. Edward West, second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John West of Carmangay. Nuptial Mass was celebrated on Wednesday, Dec. 28th at 10:30 a.m. with Rev. Father Schmeltzer officiating. A large number of friends and relatives were present for the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a gown of chantilly lace over satin, designed along simple princess lines with a satin sash falling in a loose bustle in the back and with lily-point sleeves. Embroidery lace edged the sweetheart neckline. Her chapel length veil of illusion net was caught up by a Juliet capulet of chantilly lace, sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellery was a necklace with a drop crystal pendant and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Anne West, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Miss Catherine West, also a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical cocktail length gowns of brocade and satin in aqua and yellow respectively, with matching headbands, and carried nosegays of blue and yellow carnations, roses and mums. Their jewellery was matching crystal necklace and earrings, a gift of the bride.

Attending the groom were the bride's brothers, Mr. Craig Badry and Mr. Doyle Badry. Ushers were Mr. Lee Roy West, brother of the groom, and Mr. Edwin Badry, brother of the bride.

During the ceremony, Miss Ellen West, sister of the groom, sang, "Just for Today".

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Badry chose a two-piece banker's gray suit with woodrose accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mother of the groom chose a two-piece mauve suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

About fifty guests were seated for the wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was beautifully set with a lace tablecloth on which was placed a three-tiered wedding cake, complemented with off-set candles and vases of flowers.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Father Schmeltzer to which the groom responded. In the afternoon a reception for about sixty guests was held.

In the evening, the happy couple entertained their relatives and friends at a wedding dance in the Heisler Elks Hall, with Ruby Keekos Orchestra in attendance.

For going away the bride chose a red wool sheath with a V styled waistband and choker neckline and white accessories with a corsage of white roses.

Since 1922 the Canadian Junior Red Cross has provided medical treatment and care for 61,521 handicapped and crippled children in Canada.
